D'AGOSTINO: Eh, he, he ain't gonna talk to him.
CZERWINSKI: Yea but I'm stuck JOE. I don't know what the hell to to do. The kid owes 600, 1600 bucks.
D'AGOSTINO: That's how much he owes?
CZERWINSKI: Yep. I told his ah, brother, thousand but I just figured it out. He owns a used car lot deal. He said he knows SAM, he says he wants to see SAM. I said hey, you owe it to me, ya don't owe the guy nothing.
Well, I got to see him. I got to straighten it out with him.
D'AGOSTINO: He isn't here. He ain't gonna be here either.

D'AGOSTINO: What's the guy's name?
CZERWINSKI: Huh? JIMMY KELLER. I think he said he knows ah, you too. KELLER, he got a used car (stutters) lot on Spencer Street.
D'AGOSTINO: Yea.
CZERWINSKI: And ah he said he wants to talk to SAMMY probably can piece him off. I say, hey SAM...SAM ain't gonna give me $1600 to pay off the guys. I said what the hell, we ain't gonna get stuck with that. He said no you'll get it, you'll get it. This ain't the point.
D'AGOSTINO: He shit will.
CZERWINSKI: I know it.
D'AGOSTINO: He ain't even here.
CZERWINSKI: I know it. This, this is what I got to sweat out now. I don't know what the hell to do. The kid paid the first two weeks. He was all right and all of a sudden he (stutters). Well, he bet, he bet about four games straight, and he won a couple. Then he bet the whole shebang, you know.
D'AGOSTINO: Yea.
CZERWINSKI: Bet 200-300-300-300 and that was it.
D'AGOSTINO: Yea. Jeex.
CZERWINSKI: So now I'm screwed.
D'AGOSTINO: Well what are we supposed to do then.
CZERWINSKI: JOE, I don't know believe me. This is, this well, ah, I don't even, well I don't well actually what he wants to do is see SAM if he can pay SAM so much a week or something, you know. I don't know. See that's why he wants to talk to SAMMY. Well according to him he says he knows SAM good. Now I don't know. I don't know if SAM knows him or not.
D'AGOSTINO: Hmf.
CZERWINSKI: But according to do that SAM would have to give me 1600.
D'AGOSTINO: Hoo-hoo, what a case.
CZERWINSKI: See what I mean.
D'AGOSTINO: What a case.
CZERWINSKI: I know. That's what I told him. I says, hey I said Christ the guy ain't gonna give me no 1600 dollars to pay off the debts. I said what the hell.
D'AGOSTINO: Yea.
CZERWINSKI: He says well I want to see him. I says look JIM I said the guy told me, I don't know when he's coming back or nothing. I don't even know.
D'AGOSTINO: Yea.
CZERWINSKI: But the best part is well I'd like to see him before this Super Bowl game. I says for what. He says well I'd like to bet it. I says how you gonna bet it. I says you owe the guy $1600 and you want to bet it.
D'AGOSTINO: You should ah said he ain't got nothing to do with it.

D'AGOSTINO: Yea.
CZERWINSKI: Long as I get $1,000 the other guys I can well scratch here and there. You know.
D'AGOSTINO: What did he say? He won't even give you nothing.
CZERWINSKI: Who?
D'AGOSTINO: Him.
CZERWINSKI: I don't know. He said no. He said he wanted to see SAM first.
D'AGOSTINO: He isn't here tell him.
CZERWINSKI: Yea, well that's what I told him. He said well is he gonna be back by Saturday. I said I don't know.
D'AGOSTINO: Naw.
CZERWINSKI: I says I don't know.
D'AGOSTINO: Ah.
CZERWINSKI: So I don't know. I'll see what happens. You money
I'll probably have anyway because a lot of guys owe me dough but I got to pay off a lot of guys. Well there is a few that'll wait anyway, you know, cause they owed me money before, so-
D'AGOSTINO: Well-
CZERWINSKI: Let them wait for a week.
D'AGOSTINO: Well, the best I can do then is, I don't know well, when do you want me to see you.
CZERWINSKI: Well, see me Saturday.
D'AGOSTINO: All right. And ah we'll just have to see then what CZERWINSKI: Hey. I, I was gonna ask you how about the parlays.
